Introduction & Commentary

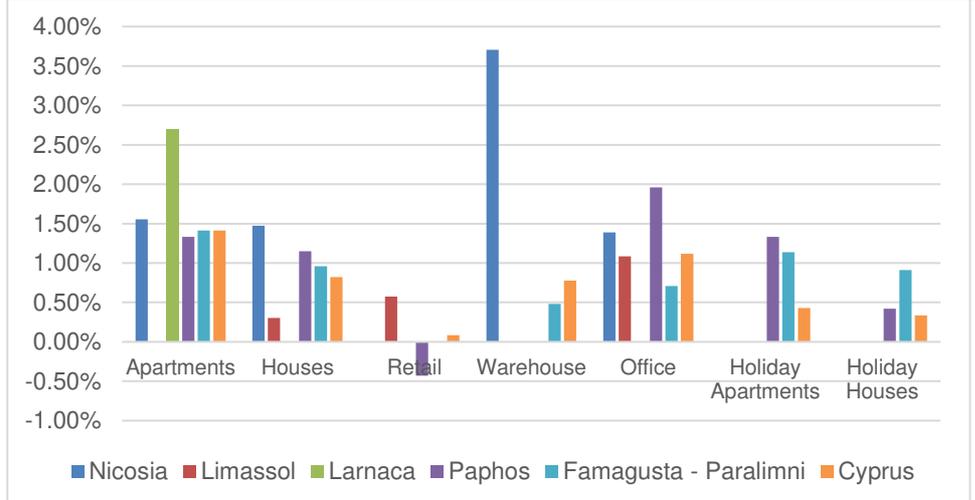

During the fourth quarter of 2017 the Cyprus economy showed further signs of recovery, with a seasonally adjusted quarterly GDP growth of 3.9% and an annual seasonally adjusted GDP growth of 3.9%. Unemployment remained at relatively high levels ca 11.3% (from the high levels of 17%).

The improved confidence in the Cyprus banking system and the marginally improved availability of finance have consequently assisted in a relatively higher transaction volume during the quarter, which further enhanced market sentiment. However, the issue of NPLs and DFAS by most banks continue to be present in the market.

Market Capital Values

The Property Price Index has recorded increases on an annual basis in all cities and asset classes, with significant increases being recorded in all Districts.

Index parameters and methodology

Methodology

The methodology underpinning the RICS Cyprus Property Price Index was developed by the University of Reading, UK. The report is available upon request at ricscyprus@rics.org

Coverage and Variables Monitored

The RICS Cyprus Property Price Index monitors the urban centres of Nicosia, Limassol, Larnaca, Paphos and Paralimni-Famagusta. The Index only tracks prices in Republic of Cyprus' government controlled area and not in the occupied North.

In each of these centres, the index monitors the Market Value and Market Rent, as defined in the RICS Red Book, across the four main property sectors – office (CBD), retail (high street), industrial (warehouse) and residential (houses and apartments).

Recognising that there are sub-districts within these urban areas which operate and behave in a varying manner, a number of these is monitored in order to derive the composite index for each category per urban area.

The information provided in this publication is based on the average price and rent of the sub-districts monitored per urban centre per sector. The complete list of these sub-districts can be found in the University of Reading's report which is available upon request at ricscyprus@rics.org

Nature of Notional Buildings

The RICS Cyprus Property Price Index monitors hypothetical or notional buildings, each having specific characteristics. Details of these hypothetical properties are provided in the University of Reading's report.

The provided price per sqm is based on the Gross External Area of the property (as defined in the RICS' Code of Measurement Practice 8th Edition), which includes the living area and covered verandas but excludes common areas.

Frequency

The index is produced on a quarterly basis.

Monitoring Process

The estimation of price levels is carried out by accredited RICS property professionals who are active in the relevant markets.
